

VOTES FOR WOMEN CENTENNIAL CAR PARADE

Hosted by AAUW Maryville and the League of Women Voters of Blount County

6:00 pm, August 18, 2020

What and why: This public car parade will celebrate the 100th anniversary of the date the Tennessee legislature voted to ratify the 19th amendment, making it the 36th and deciding state to grant American women suffrage.

- 5:30 pm 1-Parade Organizers with supplies (see below) meet at the High Praises Church parking lot (beside United Way offices at 1615 East Broadway).
- 5:40 pm 1-Participants meet and line up with assistance from Parade Organizers.
2-Every car must have a sign or decorations which designate it as a parade car. (see below).
3-Occupants in cars with multiple passengers are expected to wear masks.
4-If participants want to leave cars at High Praises and carpool in the parade, they do so at their own risk. We encourage more cars!
- 6:00 pm 1-Maryville Police will escort the parade onto Broadway headed west.
2-All participants must remain in vehicles at all times and drive slowly at the pace set by the MPD.
3-We expect two cruisers and possibly two motorcycles to accompany the parade.
4-In 1.9 miles, the parade will exit Broadway, turning right into the New Providence Presbyterian Church parking lot.
5-All participants are expected to disperse quickly from there.
